The Stampede Road Race is sanctioned by the Alberta Bicycle Association. Course Marshalls will be stationed at appropriate course locations and will be wearing reflective vests and may be holding signs. It is each rider's responsibility to know and follow the race course. The roads will not be closed to traffic and the centre line rule will be in effect.

UCI wheel regulations will be enforced.

Neutral wheels per category will be in effect.

When riding (warming up / racing / cooling down) helmets must be worn at all times.

The center line rule will be in effect, punishable by disqualification or fines.

Race prizes: Cash prizes will be awarded for each category. The value and depth of the category prizes will be determined by the total number of riders registered.

Refreshments and snacks: A post race barbeque will be held for all volunteers and riders. Burgers will be provided by M&M Meats Shops.
